

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I register?

For returning students, the registration dates are on the schedule. New students may apply to the college and get a registration date by calling 408-864-5300 or by going to the De Anza web site at www.deanza.fhda.edu to register online. Register for both first and second six-week classes at the same time.

2. Is there an opening in the class I am interested in?

Try to register and if the class is full, bring an add slip to the first class meeting.

3. How much does the class cost?

Including registration, parking and books, a typical class costs approximately $125.

4. What classes should a beginner take first?

Take Auto 50A and B first, then Auto 60. Auto 51A and B are also recommended. These are introductory courses in Automotive Technology and electronics.

5. What is the course all about?

See the schedule of classes for descriptions or visit the website at www.autotech.deanza.edu

6. How can I phone the instructor?

Check the De Anza web site or call 408-864-8768 for the instructor's voice-mail number.

7. Who do I talk to about the program? About certificates and degrees?

Talk to your instructor, or call Randy Bryant at 408-864-8840.

8. My car, my friend's car needs repairs. When can I bring it in?

Sorry, but we do not repair cars from the community at large to liabilities.
