The Atlas of California: Mapping the Challenge of a New Era

Richard Walker

Professor of Geography, Emeritus, UC Berkeley

1:30 p.m., Wednesday, April 23, 2014

Campus Center, Conference Room B, De Anza College

Join us to hear Dr. Richard Walker illuminate and untangle the web of data behind California's current economic, demographic, and physical transformations. He will introduce his latest publication The Atlas of California: Mapping the Challenge of a New Era, written with Suresh K. Lodha, Ph.D. (University of California Press, 2013).

A leader of the California Studies movement, Professor Walker focuses his research on economic geography, environment, regional and urban development, capitalism and politics, and class and race. Professor Walker is also the author of The Country in the City: The Greening of the San Francisco Bay Area, The Conquest of Bread: 150 Years of Agribusiness in California, and, with Michael Storper, The Capitalist Imperative: Territory, Technology and Industrial Growth.
