Public Comments
Melanie Dunn, Student Trustee, reported back from the Board of Trustees meeting on Monday, October 4, 2004 at 5pm. Many students from Augustine Martinez’s English classes voiced their concerns to the Board. Currently the Board is considering options to get the De Anza Bookstore’s revenue back up. Student Health fee has been increased from $9.00 to $9.75 to cover the costs of Foothill and De Anza health services during the reconstruction and renovation. The next Board of Trustees meeting is Monday, October 18 at 5pm.
Dominic introduced himself to Senate in support of “Screwbookprices.com”. He mentioned buying back the bookstore’s extra inventory for exchange at reasonable rates helps to ease the stress of book expenses amongst students.

Betty Yu announced Brian Murphy, De Anza College President, would be coming to speak to Mrs. Cole’s “Introduction to Peace Studies” courses Tuesdays and Thursdays 1:30 – 3:10 pm.

Brian Murphy announced several projects he was working on:

Bookstore project. The debate is whether to run the bookstores as a district entity or as a separate business from the campus; considering requests for outside contractors to run both Foothill and De Anza bookstores to bring back revenue.

Civic Engagement. This is a new task force initiated by Brian Murphy to help the district design in-college as well as out-of-college curriculums. He was concerned about the “mass defection of young people from politics”, and hoped this project would encourage student participation in civic activities and political life. Academic Senate and DASB were requested to take a large part of this task force in the future.

Enrollment Management Task Force. In response to the recent findings of low enrollment, this task force serves to research and develop strategies of student retention rates. The team would look at certain aspects affecting enrollment and registration, including demographic factors and citizenship status, of the students to better assess the student population. A 1% decrease in enrollment equivocates to $1 million in which the state compensates the colleges for tuition. The team’s goal is finding “who’s not here but was here”.

Jane Qi presented Honors Hour, October 11, 2004 12:30 pm in Conference Rooms A & B, featuring Farai Chideya who wrote “Trust: Reaching the 100 Million Missing Voters”. For more information, please contact Jane for more information.
