Announcements/Informational Reports

- George Smith went to the CEAG (Campus Environmental Advisory Group) meeting
- Robin Claassen, Rahela Sami, and Alex Lin attended the De Anza College Council Meeting.
- Eden Su stated that the Budget and Finance Committee discussed the Insider Magazine’s Fall Quarter Publication Issue
- Shoko Ando stated that the Student Services Committee discussed the “Eco Pass” proposal.
- Robin Claassen attended the Executive Council Meeting on June 20th. The Executive Council decided on a new absence policy: Arriving 20 minutes late or leaving 20 minutes early from an internal committee/general Senate meeting equals ½ of an absence; 3 unexcused absences from internal committees and/or the general Senate meetings, the member in question will be up for removal from the Senate. The Executive Council also decided on the Senate Training schedule.

Announcements:

- Dan Sealana: Familiarize yourselves with the 2007-2008 budget stipulations, available online on the DASB website. Also check out the internal committee codes. Stipulations say that Marketing and Communications Committee needs to put out a brochure for the New Student Orientation classes and asked for input and suggestions. Dan talked about the quarterly newsletter from the Marketing and Communications Code as another project for the orientation to De Anza College.
- Robin Claassen: Keith Hubbard was automatically removed from the DASB Senate as Agent on the basis of not meeting minimum Senate member requirements. Also there have been two thefts from the DASB/ICC office this past week: Envelopes with money in a Member’s box and a Wallet taken from an unattended backpack.
- John Cognetta stated that the DASB/ICC office is an unattended office and announced that Senator’s should not leave anything in that office. John is revisiting the issue regarding, the Executives receiving office keys from the administration.
- Rahela Sami: ICC supplies were also stolen from the tables.
- Alexander Lin: Don’t forget to pick up CCCSAA forms from on top of the cubbies in the DASB/ICC Office.
