Public Comments
Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public comments.

- Rob Mieso – Director of Outreach, have relied on DASB for a lot of their funding. Enrollment is very strong this fall. Very appreciative of the support DASB has given over the years.
- Ernest Chavez – Students for Justice, Democracy Matters, leading a committee to try to bring an opt out option for military recruitment. Want to ask De Anza to make it more public the FERPA information to students on campus.
- Juliana Batista – Have been tabling every day getting students registered to vote.

Burning Issues

- Vijay Veeramachaneni – LEAD is an event for parents and new/incoming students on October 18th, 2008 and the cross cultural partners need fluent English Speakers.
- Calvin Lam – Found some of the senators are answering questions about committees they’re not in during classroom presentations. Please make sure you are well-informed about
- June Yuan – Passing around a sign up sheet for Meet Your Senate day, need man power. Please sign up to help out.
- Esha Menon – John received an email from a student that overheard foul language in the senate office. Please maintain a degree of professionalism.
Mo Shirazi – That if two meetings had been completed at the last meeting then this would be the fourth meeting so himself, Kurt, and Alan would all be eligible this meeting.

Terell Sterling – Really important that when we do have members of the public coming in with questions or looking for help, Senators need to be very diligent in helping them. If you cannot answer the question seek out the answer. There are Poli Sci teachers sending members of their classes out to help with the mock election.
