Burning Issues

- Esha Menon: Maintain a sense of professionalism throughout the meeting. No slang or profanity. Code of conduct is very important. Second burning issue is the discussion, during discussion it is not meant for it to be immediately ended, but for views to be expressed.
- Valery Nguyen: Please do not use profanity in any language in the office or speak in any language other than English in the office.
- Terell Sterling: The office is to remain clean. Second issue is with the second it is not a joke and everyone just screams second at the same time. From now on it will be for people to wait to be recognized by raising your hand and then after being called on saying “I second the motion”. We are all college students and adults here, we are not in kindergarten anymore.
- Valery Nguyen: Since the computer that we use for checking in and out for office hours has been broken, don’t forget to write sign in/out time for office hours every day.
- Sean Lee: The current organization of the room was decided on as an executive committee to help deal with the large senate. Please let him know what you think of it after the meeting.
- Terell Sterling: Please be on time. No official business can be done without quorum.

  - Joyce Sim: Has passed out a sheet with things the SSCCC had voted on. SSCCC will be having a meeting in Monterey if you’re interested.

- Facilities Team

- Board of Trustees:
  - Patrick Ahrens: Talked about the budget crisis. Right now the district is gearing up to have to cut back classes and lay off faculty. Made a few announcements to the board about what DASB is doing and happening around campus. If you have anything you’d like him to bring before the board bring it to him for the December 1 meeting.

- De Anza College Council:
  - Terell Sterling: Met with Brian Murphy about how De Anza is viewed by other schools. Got to meet the ambassador for China who was here to look at the Kirsch Center. They are looking at building a 100% environmentally sound university. Tomorrow is the College Council meeting. Would like to hear concerns that the senate has that they would like addressed to the administration besides budget cuts.
