Public Comments
Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public comments.

• Mary Donahue: Is mostly here to answer any questions that come up about the DSU trailer, but also wants to remind the Senate to go to De Anza’s home page and search for “snow camping”. There may be snow or there may be early spring weather. There will be coyotes and are lots of activities for you to do.
• Yoon Minn Lai: There’s a DEBT meeting after the Senate meeting. He has talked to various groups around campus and more than just DASB is involved. Wants to stress how important it is to get involved.

Burning Issues

• Mo Shirazi: Has been observing as a third person how things are being conducted within the Senate and has seen a sort of elitism developing. We are not a business, but are students representing students and we should act as such.
• Jonathan Mai: Made some changes in the office while he was cleaning. If you don’t like the changes please complain to him.
• June Yuan: New shirts should be coming in soon.
• Terell Sterling: There is a petition that he and Jonathan have been passing around to students. About the budget cuts. Take the clipboards and help get signatures.
• Valery Nguyen: Dennis said that if we want the petition to be looked at the signatures must be registered voters.
• Alan Okida: Diane would like to have the art from the mock election back. Diane has also approached him about doing another show up about promoting a green environment on campus.
• Terell Sterling: Please keep the office clean throughout the week. Sees committees cleaning up the office and people coming in afterwards and tearing it up. Please clean up after yourself. Also due to ineligibility requirements Daniel Mart is no longer a Junior Senator for the DASB effective today.

Announcements

• Jonathan Mai: De Anza’s film and television department is hosting an event today. You might be able to catch the end of it. It is a DASB hosted event.
• Esha Menon: DEBT meeting will be after Senate meeting with a roughly 10 minute break. When you go to your presentations from now on start promoting the budget and ask students which programs they prefer. It really helps for budget deliberations to know what students want and don’t want to see funded.
• Calvin Lam: Student forum was held last Thursday. There were 7 speakers who all did really well and 40 people attended roughly 60% of which were senate members.
• Alan Okida: Wants to remind people as Esha Menon said to stay for the DEBT meeting. Knows it’s late, but it’s really important. Also start bringing your revenue sheets with you so you know where our funds come from and where they’re going.
• Joyce Sim: This Saturday going for the SSSCC meeting in Monterey. There’s budget cut on the agenda as well. Please come if anyone is interested. Saturday 10am at Monterey Peninsula College. Let her know because she will be driving down for sure.
• Jonathan Mai: SFJ announced that they’re going to sponsor buses to send to Sacramento for budget marches in the Spring.
• Sean Lee: Put the paper who came when and how much time they spent helping today for CES’ event. Check it and let him know if something is wrong.
• Yujin Yoshimura: Passed around a sheet to vote for the Senator of the Quarter, it’s approval voting so vote for as many as you want. Feel free to come up with a “cool nickname” for each person as well. Deadline is tomorrow to turn the sheet in.
• Terel Sterling: There’s an idea for a community service project in December. If you have ideas bring them to him.
