General Public Comments
Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public comments.

- Shige Bonk: YWCA. Walk a mile event being held to raise awareness for rape victims.

Budgeters’ Comments
- Introduction by Esha Menon of the Budget and Finance Committee.
- Budgeters’ comments are limited to three (3) minutes maximum per program area, not per individual person, to speak on their funding request.
- Men’s Basketball:
  - Jason Damjanovic: Wants to thank DASB for the funds allocated on behalf of Men’s Basketball.
- Baseball:
  - Scott Hertler: Wants to thank for the continued support shown to the program. Without the support wouldn’t be able to service the students like they are able to.
- Swimming and Diving:
  - Peter Raykovish: Had a budget cut and 15 more players than last year, but wants to thank DASB for what was allocated.
- Track and Field:
  - Nick Mattis: Understands these are tough times, but is appreciative of what’s given. Thank you for everything.
- Athletics:
  - Kulwant Singh: Here to thank on behalf of the entire program.
- Tutorial and Academic Skills:
  - Diana Alves deLima: Extremely grateful for the funding given. Program depends heavily on DASB support. DASB funds about a 1/3 of what they need every year.
• Refurbished Computers for Students:
  o Susan Malmgren: Have a program where they refurbish computers and give to financial aid students who need computers. Wants to thank for the continued support and will be back next year.

• Lifetime Fitness and Wellness Center:
  o C.J. Jones: Fitness center started nine years ago with funding from DASB.
    Students once they pass the proper courses gain lifetime access to the center.
    Appreciate any money that can be given to the center so that the facilities can be kept up.

• LEAD:
  o Edgar: LEAD the program is a set of classes that is taught with emphasis in latino/latina culture. This year did not get any funding. If they can at least get the funding to pay for the mentors that would be a huge help. Asking for the bare necessities.

• Outreach:
  o Jorge Morales: Wants to thank DASB for supporting Outreach for the past several years. But they were cut completely this year. Outreach serves to connect all the incoming students with all the wonderful programs the De Anza provides. Need funding to help pay for student ambassadors. Willing to take less, around $9,000 would suffice compared with the $16,000 they requested.

• Library Textbooks on Reserve:
  o Keri Kirkpatrick: Wants to thank DASB for the money given last year. Were able to buy textbooks. Without funding they are not able to get textbooks for the reserve system unless professors bring them in.

• Calworks:
  o Daniel Dishno: Wants to thank on the behalf of all the families they are able to help who would normally not be able to attend college. Wants to thank for continued support.

• Women’s Soccer:
  o Cheryl Owiesny: One of the most successful athletic teams on campus.
    Appreciative of the support from DASB.

• Men’s Soccer and Women’s Badminton:
  o Mark Landefeld: Wants to thank for continued support of the Men’s Soccer program. Appreciate the support that’s been given from DASB to Women’s badminton as well. Asks DASB to consider the original request.

• Adapted Physical Education:
  o Jim Alaynes: Wanted to come by to say thank you for the ongoing funding from DASB.

• Football:
  o Dan Atencio: Really appreciate the funding given. Has allowed them to recruit several students onto the team. All are student athletes maintaining high GPAs.
    Money allows them to run a first-class program.

• Photography:
  o Diane Pierce: For the last three years has been asking for funding for display cases. Currently students do not have a way to show their work off without framing them themselves. Thankful for the amount that has been given. Would only be able to do 2/3s of the wall with the current amount funded.
• Cross Cultural Partners:
  o Gloria Heinstein: DASB was the first program that supported them and is really appreciative of all the support shown. Serving students over 400 students a quarter who need English speaking skills for their ESL classes. DASB has in the past 100% funded their student payroll. Only thing they can do currently with the budget cut they received is to reduce their program. Need about $5,000 more.

• Puente:
  o Becky Roberts: Really wants to thank DASB for supporting Puente for the 8 years they’ve been on campus. They did receive funding this year, which is appreciated, but it’s about half what they request. Will have to cut their program back if this is passed. Not asking for everything they weren’t funded, but another $2,000 would help.

• Insider and La Voz:
  o Beth Grobman: Insider gives information to new students who come to De Anza. Promotes DASB and purchasing the DASB card. Tells about the programs the DASB funds. Hoping for at least half of what they requested originally so they can make a smaller version of the magazine at least. La Voz is a weekly issue campus newspaper. Can live with what was allocated, just please don’t reduce it at all. It all goes to printing.

• Student Success and Retention Services:
  o C. Chinn: Program is dealing with motivating students who invest in their own education. Looking to have a fair this year to have African-American speakers to come in and speak. Anybody who needs help is welcome to come.

• Listening and Speaking Lab:
  o Mary Anne: Hopes DASB will consider funding the program. Helps students practice listening to and speaking English. Several students commented it made them more comfortable speaking English.

• WRC:
  o Karen Chow: Thank you for supporting the WRC this year as they have in the past. Serves at least 70 students per day. The student assistant is very crucial to making sure everything runs smoothly.

• DLTP:
  o Nicky Gonzalez: One of the primary places on De Anza where leadership training is done. Have had their budget completely eliminated. Requesting at least half of what they originally requested and they will find a way to fundraise the rest.

• Environmental Studies/ESA:
  o Diana Martinez: Back in 1972 it was the generosity of DASB that helped build the ESA in the first place. Here to thank for the continued support.

• ICC:
  o La Donna Yumori-Kaku: Thank you for the continued support. Up to over 68 clubs and growing.

• MPS:
  o Herminio Hernando: Here to thank DASB for the funding over the past couple of years. Funding last year allowed them to expand the program.

• Red Wheelbarrow:
  o Ken Weisner: Appreciative of how everyone is sitting here listening so patiently. Here to speak on the National Edition which DASB has not been funding. Asking for at least half the funding and then challenging them to make the other half back in sales.
• Honors Program:
  o Alex Giardino: The money goes completely to paying for the program coordinator’s salary. Current amount funded will force coordinator to take a 50% payout and will only be able to work half time on that amount.

• Women’s Tennis:
  o Colien Wheat: Very appreciative of the past financial support that has been given. Would very much appreciate any future financial support they can receive.

• Mural Restoration:
  o Erik White: Came last quarter requesting funding to restore a painting in the L-Quad. Request was refused as there was not the money to fund so much. Has spent money out of his own pocket and given his own time.

• Graduation:
  o Patrick Ahrens: The college is asking for DASB to help fund refreshments at Graduation to help offset the cost of the whole event. Urges the Senate to fund the request.

Burning Issues

- Sakura Yoshimura: Remind anyone who’d like to join in the discussion later to remember goals. Respect what the Budget and Finance committee has approved.
- Yujin Yoshimura: All things need 2/3s vote. When you have conflict of interest please abstain from voting. If you don’t have a conflict of interest please do not abstain.
- Valery Nguyen: Senators you are expected to do your office hours as posted. Also do not forget that you have to 2 field hours this week.
- Terell Sterling: You are required to be here for the entirety of the meeting for budget deliberations. Unless you have been excused by Valery if you leave early it will be half an absence. Second, please make ethical/moral judgments. The Budget and Finance committee has taken a lot of time going over this budget. Our DASB Budget has actually decreased for the next year.
