

Thursday, April 12, 2012

De Anza: Remembering Trayvon

PROGRAM OF EVENTS

11:15 – 11:20 Freedom Stage/Student Quad

Hoodie Flash Mob: Please show your support by joining us at the Freedom Stage in your hoodie. Please pull up your hoodie at 11:20 and join us for 5 minutes of silence in remembrance of Trayvon Martin, and all who have died due to hate crimes and gun violence. Bring your 8 ½ x 11 sign or come early and make one! Supported by SFJ*

11:20 – 11:50 Freedom Stage

Open Mic: Please consider supporting or participating in an open mic for peace and remembrance for Trayvon Martin and Social Justice! Bring your spoken-words, poems, raps and songs of empowerment, sadness, pain and hope. Supported by the BSU

12:00 – 1:30 Hinson Campus Center, Conference Rooms A & B

Community Conversation: Please join us for a compassionate dialogue on what we can learn from Trayvon, and how we can HEAL the wounds of oppression and violence in our communities. A special presentation on Compassionate Communication led by Edmundo Norte will precede student facilitated small group dialogue. Support by Donna Stasio Student Facilitators

1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Hinson Campus Center, Conference Rooms A & B

De Anza College's Visiting Speakers Series 2012: Another World is possible in the Silicon Valley too... Using the Cultures of the Valley to Strengthen and Sustain Us

A performance and discussion featuring: Elisa Marina Alvarado, Artistic Director and founding member of Teatro Visión, San Jose and P.J. Hirabayashi, Artistic Director Emeritus, San Jose Taiko, Co-founder of San Jose Taiko and Founder of TaikoPeace

How have artists from Silicon Valley's Latino and Asian Pacific Islander communities used traditional cultural practices and art forms in creative ways to help their communities and address critical issues they face? How can we use cultural practices to heal and strengthen our communities when facing hate, anger, and fear as with the recent case of Trayvon Martin? Visiting Speakers Series funded by DASB*

All events supported by the Institute of Community and Civic Engagement, the Office of Staff and Organizational Development, the Office of Equity, Social Justice, and Multicultural Education, The Multicultural Center/IIS, and the California History Center*

PLEASE WEAR YOUR HOODIE ALL DAY!

April is Multicultural Communications Awareness Month - Let's Talk: Let's really talk