FEATURING DR. ESTELA MARA BENSIMON

Estela Mara Bensimon, Ed.D., is a professor of higher education and co-director of the Center for Urban Education (CUE) at the USC Rossier School of Education. Her current research is on issues of racial equity in higher education from the perspective of organizational learning and socio-cultural practice theories. She is particularly interested in place-based, practitioner-driven inquiry as a means of organizational change in higher education. She has written extensively on equity in higher education, developed approaches for institutionalizing the equity cognitive frame, and developed the Equity Score Card approach.
