

Environmental Studies 1

- Welcome to De Anza College!
- Julie Phillips, Environmental Studies Department
- Office Location: S56a
- Telephone: (408)864-8655
- E-mail:
 - Tuleelk1@earthlink.net
 - PhillipsJulie@fhda.edu
- <http://bhs.deanza.edu/faculty/Phillips/>

Please pick up the following items:

- Lecture Schedule - ES 1
- ES 1 Student Packet 2003/04
- Miller's Textbook, Living in the Environment 13th Edition
- Leopold's, A Sand County Almanac
- Journal - recycled content only!

Environmental Topics

- Environmental Method
- Humans & the Earth
- Environmental History of the United States
- Ethics, Politics & the Environment
- Ecological Integrity & Natural Resources
- Sustainable Resource Use
- Academic skills (including learning strategies!)

QuickTime™ and a Photo CD Decompressor are needed to use this picture

Any guesses on these?

- What was the great “debate” in Yosemite?
- What was Love Canal?
- Who manages your forests?
- What is an environmental ethic?
- Is the Endangered Species Act working?
- What is a regional approach to energy policy?
- What is an environmental management plan?
- Describe a sustainable system
- Much, much more. ..

Today’s Topics:

- Welcome to Teleclass #1
- Introduction to Environmental Studies
- Environmental Stewardship Hypothesis
- Humans & the Earth
- Guest Speakers - Paul Olejniczak (Meteorology) & Steve Murphy (Energy Management Technology)
- Today’s assignments - Journal Entry #1

Next class Topics:

- Welcome to Teleclass #2
- What is Environmental Studies?
Environmental Method
- Environmental History
- Guest Speaker - Ben Kline (History)
- Assignments - Journal Entry #2

