Course Description: A general introduction to the visual arts of the indigenous cultures of Mesoamerica, an area extending from northern Mexico through Central America, and the Andean region of South America. This course covers diverse art forms, including architecture, ceramics, weaving, painting and sculpture from antiquity to the present. Topics addressing the religious, cultural, social, economic and political contexts of the art, including gender issues and contemporary social/political awareness, will be explored. We will work collaboratively, becoming actively involved in the learning experience. We will apply an interdisciplinary approach to art history, including methods of analysis from anthropology, history and cultural studies.

Required Texts (available at the Bookstore and ON RESERVE in the Library):

NOTE current editions needed.

Miller, Mary Ellen. The Art of Mesoamerica. 5th edition. N.Y.: Thames & Hudson, 2012.

Stone, Rebecca. Art of the Andes from Chavin to Inca. 3rd edition. N.Y.: Thames & Hudson, 2012.

 All reading assignments for each week are listed on the attached course schedule.

Required Notebook: You need to purchase a spiral notebook and bring the notebook and pen or pencil to class each day. The notebook is required for in-class writings and exercises. Your notebook must be a spiral bound notebook (no binders accepted) and be 8 ½ x 11" in size (50 or more pages).

In this class, I will expect students to:

1. Contribute to a positive, collaborative learning environment by being open and receptive to the ideas and opinions of others. It is ok to disagree with a concept, but please be respectful of the ideas of others.
2. Attend class regularly. More than three absences will result in the lowering of your grade one full step (A to a B, B to a C, etc). After three missed class sessions, I have the option of dropping you from enrollment. However, I consider it your responsibility to drop the course if you find it necessary to do so. If you become ill, contact the instructor and we can discuss possible solutions for days missed.
3. NO E-MAIL SUBMISSIONS OF COURSE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED.
4. Be on time and practice polite classroom etiquette. If you are late, I may count you absent, especially if you disturb the class. Don't hold separate conversations during lecture time or class discussions. Others may want to hear what is going on in class. Come prepared to class and participate.
*TURN CELL PHONES OFF during class time.
5. Don't cheat. Anyone found cheating on an exam or plagiarizing (copying material without reference or credit) will be given an "F" on that exam or assignment and may fail the course.

Each student MUST write his/her own paper. If two students hand in the same paper, each will receive half the points earned (equivalent to an "F").

6. Finish paper and reading assignments on time. Readings complement the material we cover in class. Completing the reading assignments will help your ability to participate in class discussions.

Assignments: Two exams are required. They will be composed of short slide identifications, multiple choice and a matching section. Exam format, typical questions and study tips will be discussed thoroughly in class. The midterm exam will be February 11th. The final exam will be according to the scheduled time in our regular classroom (see below). ALL students are required to take the final exam at that time only.

NO EARLY EXAMS OR MAKE-UP EXAMS WILL BE GIVEN. If you miss an exam due to a health or family emergency, please discuss the situation with me.

Three Notebook submissions to instructor: Week 3, Week 7 and Finals Week. A number of short in-class writings, activities and assignments done in small groups will be required throughout the quarter. You are required to submit your notebook to the instructor in class or office hour during the assigned week.

One paper and a group presentation will be required. Dates of the group presentation will be discussed and assigned in class. The paper, 4-5 pages long, will be a brief research paper following one of several options assigned in class.  Full instructions regarding the paper assignment will be explained in class and posted on the instructor's website.

EXAM SLIDES for Midterm Exam: The following numbers are the illustrations in your textbook (Mary Ellen Miller, The Art of Mesoamerica) that you will need to study for the midterm exam (Available to print as a PDF file on instructor's website). Both the illustration and page numbers are provided. Be prepared to identify these art works by asking: Who? What? Where? And Why? What does the art reveal about the cultural or historical contexts? You will be asked to comment upon the significance of the slide for the course. Although only a select few of these examples will actually appear on the exam, you need to study all of them in order to do well on the midterm.

Outline for Describing a Work of Art

When studying or writing about art, make note of the following:

- WHO? For whom and by whom was the object made? Specific artist known?
Patron known? (Who commissioned or paid for an art work?)
- WHAT? What is it? What is its title or subject?
- WHERE? Where was it made? What site and is this an important factor?
- WHY? Why was this object made? For what purpose? What does it tell us about the culture who made and used it?
- HOW? How was it made? What are the materials and techniques used?

Does the art work reveal anything about the following contexts?

- Historical
- Cultural
- Social
- Political
- Religious or ceremonial
- Economic

What is the subject matter? What motifs or symbols are used and what is their significance? Art historians call this iconography.

When describing the style of an art work (stylistic analysis), consider the following:

- Scale: What is the size and why is this important?
 - Composition: What is the overall arrangement of the elements of the piece?
 - Is the design balanced or symmetrical? Asymmetrical?
 - Do the motifs fill the entire design surface? How is space used?
 - What are the relationships of the designs to one another?
 - Overall approach: Is it naturalistic? Based on natural forms, but stylized?
 - Geometric? Abstract (not naturalistic)?
 - Shape: What is the basic shape or contour of the piece?
 - What shapes does the artist use? Square, circle, triangle?
 - Line: What is the character of the painted, sculpted, beaded, embroidered, woven line? Are forms strongly outlined? Is the line curvilinear?
 - Straight-edged? Dynamic, meandering, fluid? Do forms suggest movement?
 - Color: What are the colors used? How do they affect the work? Are they bright?
 - Subtle in effect? How is black and white used? Are shadows obvious?
 - Texture: Is texture indicated? How does this affect the work?
- How have all the elements above contributed to the way the piece looks?
What is the emotional impact upon you, the viewer?
Do these aspects of style suggest anything about the contexts given above?
About the artist and his or her culture?

2 participation points (Points count towards final notebook score)

This quarter I have over 200 students combined in the classes that I teach, and the names in the official records are often not the names that students prefer to use. To help me learn all of your names, please submit a photograph of yourself.

To save paper, you need to print, copy, or paste it onto this worksheet. Try to size the picture so that your face is at least two inches high.

Write a brief paragraph about you (include any concerns you might have about the class). What is your passion? Also write one sentence answering this question: What do you think this photo shows about you?

DUE: End of the first week of class - Wednesday, January 7th.
