CATALYST INFORMATION:

This course utilizes Catalyst, De Anza’s Online Learning Community. Please go to the Catalyst website: <https://catalyst.deanza.edu/> to log in. Please note that you will be unable to log into our classroom until the first day of class. Additional instructions and assistance can be found on the Online Education Center site: <http://www.deanza.edu/online-ed/> and http://www.deanza.edu/online-ed/student_resources.html

COURSE DESCRIPTION/OBJECTIVES

JOUR 2 is designed to acquaint you with mass media with a particular focus on convergence and how it has changed and continues to change the nature of communication. You are probably already acutely aware of the ubiquitous (pervasive and everywhere) nature of media. The goal of this course is to teach you how to analyze the media and culture within a deliberative, informed context. We will examine print, radio, television, film, and other traditional media — reviewing media history and earlier functions — but mainly to understand the role that technology and digital media play in our mass communication environment. The idea is to help you better understand the world you live in and the changes that are taking place with media.

This course qualifies for the De Anza A.A./A.S. degree in area D, the general education requirement for CSU in area D7, and the general education requirement for UC/CSU (IGETC) in area 4G. It is a requirement for De Anza's A.A. or AA-T degrees in journalism.

PREQUISITE ADVISORY: EWRT 1A or ESL 5

In this course, you will:

- Examine the development and role of media in a changing political and cultural world, within a historical perspective.
- Examine relationships and effects between media and popular culture, including your role as a consumer of the media and participant in mass culture.
- Examine the government regulations of the media as well as the constitutional principles that guide it.
- Examine ethical, philosophical and controversial issues that arise in mass media; discuss a range of viewpoints regarding these issues.
- Examine behind-the-scenes operations, decision-making processes, and careers in the media industries: books, newspapers, magazines, movies, radio, recordings, television, and the Internet.
- Participate in a hands-on experience with producing media.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

When this course is completed, students should be able to:

- ✓ Explain and illustrate the basic facets of communication theory.
- ✓ Demonstrate knowledge of the history, operation, and culture of different forms of mass media.
- ✓ Analyze and critique the impact of mass media and articulate controversies surrounding each medium.

TEXTBOOK

The required textbook is Mass Communication (6th edition) by Ralph E. Hanson published by SAGE; ISBN-13: 978-1483344751, ISBN-10: 1483344754. The course uses the entire book.

You can buy a copy at the De Anza Bookstore or buy an e-textbook at coursesmart.com. You may also find several sources to rent the book online. (This is a less expensive option.)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Complete the online orientation: http://www.deanza.edu/online-ed/show_orientation.html?class=6677
- Access the class and class information in Catalyst (the courseware program where the class resides).
- Complete weekly textbook readings from Mass Communication (6th edition) and view weekly online video segments.
- Take weekly online quizzes drawn primarily from the readings.
- Answer weekly discussion questions, tying the topics to class readings and viewings.
- Contribute to and participate in class discussions, responding to at least two other classmates each week.
- Complete three projects: (1) the Internet Search Project, (2) the Media Experience Project, and (3) the Research Paper (a minimum of 1,000 words). The Research Paper will look at an aspect of the mass media from a social science perspective, require critical thinking, use concepts from assigned readings, include a bibliography and require students to use an academic or library database. Details will be given later.

All requirements have specific due dates that won't be extended.

LATE WORK: Assignments and discussions may be submitted early. Late assignments, discussions or quizzes may NOT be accepted.

NOTE: I understand your possible reasons for not doing your assignments or not being in our virtual class: "I was sick. My dog was sick. My car broke. I had to go to work. I had family emergency. My kid was sick. I was at a hospital. My computer crashed. I didn't receive emails. I didn't know it's due. I forgot. I was pulled over. I was at jury duty. I had guests from overseas. I didn't have a babysitter for my kid. I had to pick up my kid. I had an appointment. I have a full-time job. I had to take care of my family. I was evicted," etc. You have my complete sympathy, compassion and support, but the class has requirements that need to be met. If, for any reason, you feel you are not ready to complete the course, retake it whenever you feel ready. You earn your own grade. If you don't meet the requirements, you won't pass successfully. Deadlines need to be met.

DROPPING THE CLASS

- Drops: Make sure to check the Academic Calendar for deadlines. I may drop any student who has not attended class or logged into the classroom for seven or more consecutive days. Please see "How to Drop Classes" at <http://www.deanza.edu/regISTRATION/add-drop.html> for regulations, dates and procedures for dropping classes.
- Students who have excessive absences or are not keeping up with assignments may be dropped by the instructor.
- Students who disappear and do not drop by the final "Drop with W" deadline will receive an "F."

PLAGIARISM: Plagiarism (copying work or cheating) is grounds for probation and/or suspension from the college. Any student who cheats on an exam, plagiarizes from somebody's work or lifts information from sources without citing those sources will receive a 0 for that assignment and a grade no higher than a C for the course. If you are uncertain about the college's policy on academic misconduct, please refer to the Academic Integrity section in the De Anza College Student Handbook. An online site about plagiarism with suggestions on how to avoid it is available at the Purdue University Online Writing Lab.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Friday, March 31: Last day to file for a winter degree or certificate.

Friday, March 31: Last day of Winter Quarter.

Monday, April 10: First day of Spring Quarter.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: The instructor will accommodate special needs that are discussed with her during the first week of the course. If you have a disability-related need for reasonable academic accommodations or services, provide the instructor with a Test Accommodation Verification Form (also known as a TAV form) from Disability Support Services (DSS) or the Educational Diagnostic Center (EDC). Students are expected to give a five-day notice of the need for accommodations. Students with disabilities can obtain a TAV form from their DSS counselor (864-8753 DSS main number) or EDC advisor (864-8839 EDC main number).

COURTESY/EQUITY: In the online discussions, we will talk about interesting, and sometimes volatile, issues. I expect students to be professional and courteous, to listen to one another, and to show tolerance and respect for varying viewpoints. Students who exhibit inappropriate behavior will be docked points and/or excused from the class. All persons, regardless of gender, age, class, race, religion, physical disability, sexual orientation, etc., shall have equal opportunity without harassment in this course. Problems with or questions about harassment can be discussed in confidentiality with the instructor.

COURSE HINTS:

- Always keep a copy of your submissions as backup in case the one posted/sent to the instructor is lost. This is especially important in an online/hybrid class since (electronic) stuff happens.
- When sending an email to the Instructor, write JOUR 2 in all caps in the subject line, along with the subject. That way it won't be confused with spam.
- Schedule your time appropriately; I may take up to 24 hours to respond to queries (except during our online "class" or office hours). If I don't reply after 24 hours, please feel free to resend your email.
- Don't procrastinate. Start work early in the week. Sometimes the Internet may be down later in the week or you may have some other emergency. Plan ahead, especially for the Projects and the Research Paper, which are lengthy and require research.
- Look ahead at the assignments, and work ahead if you have the time.

DISCUSSION POSTS (30 points each): Posts should be in the same format as work you would hand in for a college class, except paragraphs should be shorter. Discussion posts are due on Thursdays each week, and replies to other classmates by Saturdays.

- Use complete sentences (bullet points are OK within a paragraph).
- Use standard English grammar and sentence structure.
- Use uppercases for the word "I," "Internet," for all proper names, and for the beginnings of sentences. (Stay away from phonetic spelling and "texting" type language like "u" for "you" and "r" for "are.")
- Read the instructions carefully -- usually students need to choose only one of the topics.
- Read/view any resources needed to respond to the question.
- Pay attention to word count. If your post seems too short, consult the resources more closely, or think more deeply, to come up with more ideas to write about.
- Do not run more than 50 words OVER the word count.
- Replies do not have to be structured as formally as initial posts, but should show some thought (more than just "good post" or "I agree").
- You are welcome to reply to more than two classmates' posts. (Two is the minimum to meet participation requirements.)

QUIZZES (20 points): Quizzes are due by Sunday night each week (except maybe the last one, which might be due on Friday). Here are some hints to improve quiz grades:

- Read the chapters carefully before you start.
- Use sub-headings and margin definitions to help you locate the information you're looking for.
- Use the index and glossary to find specific words or names.

EXTRA CREDIT:

You may complete an extra credit documentary report (in Week 11) for 50 points. In addition, the instructor may post extra credit assignments throughout the course. Students are limited to a maximum of 75 extra credit points.

GRADING:

Quizzes (12 quizzes @ 20 points each) – 240 points
Weekly Discussion Questions (1 @ 10 points and 11 @ 30 points) – 340 points
Internet search Project – 40 points
Media Experience Project – 75 points
Topic for Research Paper – 25 points
Annotated Bibliography Discussion – 25 points
Research Paper – 150 points
Participation – 105 points

Participation includes thoroughness and excellence in discussion assignments, showing you are an engaged, active and punctual learner (e.g., doing more than the minimum participation, showing quality research in answers), watching all videos. (Catalyst is like Big Brother: it keeps track of your activities!) Replying to at least two of your classmates each week (Weeks 2-11) will give you 10 points. Each response post is worth 5 points.

Assignment grades are based on accuracy, following directions, thoroughness and quality. Points will be taken off for grammar, typos and/or punctuation errors.

Grade Scale

A+* = 990-1000 points
B+ = 875-899 points
C+ = 775-799 points
D = 600-699 points
F = 600 points or less

A = 926-989 points
B = 826-874 points
C = 700-774 points

A- = 900-925 points
B- = 800-825 points

*To earn an A+ you must have a score of 990 or above.

TIME MANAGEMENT

College guideline: For each unit of credit, you should expect to spend three hours per week in addition to the class time. JOUR 2 is a four-unit class, so you should expect to spend 16 hours per week or 960 minutes.

COURTESY/EQUITY

In the online discussions, we will talk about interesting, and sometimes volatile, issues. I expect students to be professional and courteous, to listen to one another, and to show tolerance and respect for varying viewpoints. Students who exhibit inappropriate behavior will be docked points and/or face other consequences. All persons, regardless of gender, age, class, race, religion, physical disability, sexual orientation, etc., shall have equal opportunity without harassment in this course. Problems with or questions about harassment can be discussed in confidentiality with the instructor.
