The business classes listed above requires payment for materials you will use for class. You will be given access to the eBook, online resources, and homework management system through Canvas or via email from your instructor. This program gives students access by the first day of class and the opportunity to purchase the material at a lower cost than direct from the publisher. You must "opt-in" by paying for the material at the Bookstore or the Bookstore Website (books.deanza.edu) by the add/drop date of Sunday, January, 21st, 2018. If you choose not to participate your access will be cut off for non-payment. Please note that there are no refunds, payments are not transferable, and payment is for the current term/course/section. Your Student ID number is required.
