

Week Three Lesson Plan:

Student Learning Objectives:

Understand the Libertarian notion a minimal state, and the primary political value that motivates it.

Understand the governmental policies that a minimal state allows and those it prohibits.

Understand Robert Nozick's theory of entitlement and the two conditions that must be met to establish property rights.

Understand Michael Sandel's four criticisms of libertarianism.

Read Justice, read pp. 58-74.

Read John Locke's Second Treatise of Government, Sections 4-34 (CH, II - V)

<http://www.justiceharvard.org/resources/episode-3-discussion-guide-advanced/> Episode 3 - Discussion Questions Due Sunday midnight - Please type, double space, use no larger than 12 font, and minimum 600 words.

Do #2 and #3 in the first set.

Do #1 in the second set.

Do #2 and #3 in the third set.

Robert Nozick <http://www.iep.utm.edu/nozick/>

Obama's "You didn't build that" speech:

<http://www.factcheck.org/2012/07/you-didnt-build-that-uncut-and-unedited/>

A response from the Maverick Philosopher:

http://maverickphilosopher.typepad.com/maverick_philosopher/2012/07/who-built-the-internet-obamas-straw-man-fallacy.html

Quiz 3