Instructor: Mary Jo Ignoffo
ignoffomaryjo@deanza.edu

Study Guide for Mid-term exam, January 28, 2010

Please Note: if you miss the exam and have to reschedule, you will be given a different (and more difficult) test.

Bring a scantron (brown) and a blue book. The exam is worth 100 points (25 objective questions worth 2 points each and two essay questions worth 25 points each).

Be able to identify the following

- W.E.B. Du Bois
- Woodrow Wilson
- Alice Paul
- Margaret Sanger
- Jane Addams
- John “Black Jack” Pershing
- Herbert Hoover
- Theodore Roosevelt
- Eugene Debs
- William Jennings Bryan
- Archduke Franz Ferdinand
- Calvin Coolidge
- Warren G. Harding
- Emma Goldman
- Sacco and Vanzetti
- Franklin Delano Roosevelt
- Henry Ford
- Upton Sinclair
- Eleanor Roosevelt
- Huey Long
- John Steinbeck

- Progressivism
- Square Deal
- Roosevelt Corollary
- Jim Crow laws
- Settlement House Movement
- Wilson’s Fourteen Points
- Zimmermann telegram
- Lusitania
- League of Nations
- Red Scare
- Ku Klux Klan
- Scopes Trial
- Prohibition
- Panama Canal
- Dollar diplomacy
- Middletown
- Works Progress Adm (WPA)
- Hoovervilles
- Primary Source
- Secondary Source
- Civilian Conservation Corp
- (CCC)
- Monroe Doctrine
- American Expeditionary Force
- (AEF)
- doughboys
- Brest-Litovsk Treaty
- Treaty of Versailles

Possible Essay Question Topics:
(Please Note: You will need to write the who, what, where, why, how, and what it all meant for these topics). These questions will be worth 25 points and you must demonstrate superior knowledge on the subject to earn all possible points.

- Progressivism
- Roosevelt’s foreign policy
- Theatres of War and Pershing’s strategies
- Wilson’s Fourteen Points (you do not need to memorize all fourteen, but give a good understanding of the document and why important)
- The Red Scare
- 19th Amendment to the Constitution and the factions of the suffrage movement
- The Auto Industry and the ways it changed America