

Questions for Yuen, “The Bloody Connection Between Vampires and Vegetarians”

- 1) What, according to Yuen, are the two requirements of moral agency?
- 2) Why should we think that vampires are rational?
- 3) What is the moral difference, according to Yuen, between a craving and a compulsion?
- 4) Yuen considers three possible justifications for a vampire choosing to drink human blood. What are these justifications?
- 5) What does consistency require of us with respect to moral principles?