Mission: To restore, protect and manage the state’s natural, historical and cultural resources for current and future generations.