

ECG Take-Home Quiz #2

EACH QUESTION IS WORTH ONE POINT. Please print and complete this quiz, and turn it in on the assigned date.

1. The cardiac cycle is best defined as _____.
2. _____ refers to amount, extent, size, abundance, or fullness of a spike on an ECG.
3. The standard ECG is composed of six _____ leads, three _____ and three _____ leads.
4. The pulse is felt after the _____ contract.
5. Three types of artifact are: _____, _____, and _____.
6. The duration (or time) of any wave may be determined by measuring along the _____ axis.
7. Another name for the AV node is the _____.
8. There are _____ small boxes in each large box on ECG paper.
9. Each small box is _____ of a second.
10. Blood flows from the right side of the heart through the _____ into the lungs, then it flows through the _____ into the left side of the heart.