

Partners in Learning FLOURISHING IN THE 21ST CENTURY

(formerly known as the Teaching & Learning Conference)

Friday - March 4, 9am - 4pm Conference rooms A & B

- What must our students know to thrive in the world they are inheriting?
- What preparation do they need to get them there?

- How will we get them to know what they need to know?
- How will we know if we got them to know it?

student facilitated talks include:

- ▶ Let a thousand artists bloom – Eugene Rodriguez, Art
- ▶ Dirty math: Engaging students in & out of the classroom
– Melissa Aguilar, SSC, Yuan Kuo, SSC, and Doli Bambhania, Math
- ▶ Why do students need us when they already have Google? – Toño Ramirez, Philosophy
- ▶ How will we maintain our health? The future of health professionals — Jeff Schinske, Bio
- ▶ Cross training the mind for intellectual and academic growth – Marshall Hattori, English
- ▶ The world twitters, De Anza flutters: Finding inspiration during challenging times
– Virginia Marquez, EOPS
- ▶ Honoring students while changing the educational domain
– Kristin Skager, Reading & Paula Silva, English & Doli Bambhania, Math

Join Your Colleagues!

PGA | PAA special service may apply | Stipends for PT faculty | Meals
Campus wide activity — Use your Flex day!

Sponsors

- Office of Instruction
- Institute of Community & Civic Engagement
- Classified Senate
- Staff & Organizational Development
- Academic Senate

REGISTRATION OPENS SOON!

For more information contact:

Cynthia Kaufman x8739
Conference Coordinator
kaufmancynthia@deanza.edu