Foothill and De Anza Colleges
International Programs

Guaranteed Admissions Policy
ESL School Students

Foothill and De Anza Colleges (FHDA) require a minimum TOEFL score of 61 iBT/500 paper or a minimum IELTS score of 6.0. Students who have a lower TOEFL or IELTS score should attend an ESL language school to raise their English level before coming to Foothill or De Anza. The steps for applying for guaranteed admission are the following:

Foothill and De Anza Colleges have guaranteed admissions agreements with many language schools. Please turn to the other side of this page for a list of those schools. Student completes the application to either Foothill or De Anza Colleges AND the language school at the same time and send the application to each respective school. The student should enclose a letter along with the FHDA application indicating that he/she applied to a specific language school and request a Conditional Acceptance Letter (CAL) from Foothill or De Anza's International Admission Office. CAL states that the student will be admitted to Foothill/De Anza upon fulfilling the College's English requirement at the language school.

The language school will send the student the first I-20 Form and FHDA will send the CAL to the student. The CAL and the I-20 should be presented with other documents to the U.S. Embassy when applying for the F-1 visa.

Once the student completes the required ESL level at the language school or a reach the TOEFL score of 61iBT/500 paper, the student can transfer to FHDA Anza at the next in-take for admission. Student need to send proof of completion of their ESL language program to FHDA. Upon evaluation by the International Student Office, you will receive an official admission notice, transfer instructions, and orientation information.
