

ISP LOGO CONTEST WINNER

Fernando Djohan is our ISP Logo Contest Winner. Fernando is interested in product design, graphic arts, photography and music. Fernando is currently involved in a joint-project between San Jose State Interior Design and the Salinas Public Library Project as planner and specifications. Fernando, also works as a freelance designer, designing promotional items as well as his first lounge and restaurant project in Ames, Iowa. Fernando is also a part of a member of International Interior Design Association (IIDA), American Society of Interior Design (ASID) and in progress to achieving his Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Design, in Spring Quarter 2010 from San Jose State University.

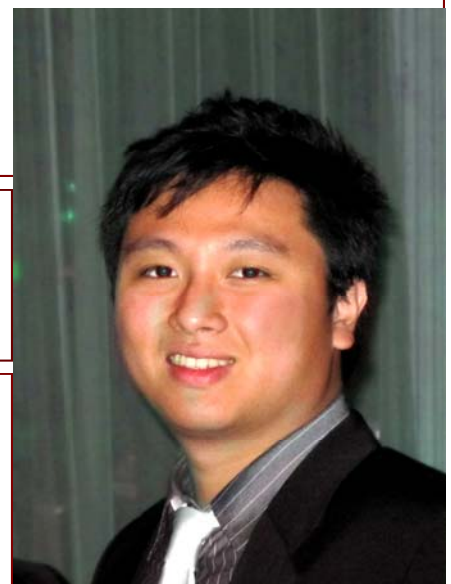

Congratulations, Fernando!!!

Competitions Won:

- Bridge Design by Ngee Ann Polytechnic in 2003 and 2004
- Nan Yang Polytechnic Model Making competition in 2004

Achievements:

- 2nd Best of senior project works, De Anza College
- Dean's scholarship
- Art and Design Scholarship in 2008
- 3rd place in overall store design by the Planning & Visual Education Partnership (PAVE)
- Student design competition sponsored by Macy's

FERNANDO DJOHAN
INDONESIA