

Cupertino Statistics

7/14/04

- In Fall 2003, 1 out of 10 or 10% of De Anza College credit students was living in Cupertino. Put differently, almost 2,500 of the approximately 25,000 students were from Cupertino.
- 10% of a roughly 60 million dollar budget means that Cupertino students generate an estimated 6 million dollars in revenue each year for De Anza, just for the credit program.
- According to the California Postsecondary Education Commission, in Fall 2002, the number of Fremont Union High School District graduates attending De Anza was nearly equal to the total number attending a CSU.
  - Of the June high school graduates that go on to a public college in the fall, more attended De Anza College than any other single public institution of higher education in California.
- Students identifying themselves as Chinese made up more than 20% of students living in Cupertino and attending De Anza in Fall 2003, which is twice the percentage from all other areas. 46% of students living in Cupertino and attending De Anza in Fall 2003, had identified themselves as Asian.
- Students identifying themselves as White made up more than 30% of students living in Cupertino and attending De Anza in Fall 2003, which is 5 percentage points above that from all other areas.
- Of the Japanese students attending De Anza in Fall 2003, 20% were living in Cupertino.
- Of the students on an F1 visa attending De Anza in Fall 2003, 22% were living in Cupertino.
- About 16% of Cupertino residents at De Anza in Fall 2003 had received a foreign degree, which is about twice the percentage from all other areas.
- A higher percentage of students from Cupertino took only one course at De Anza in Fall 2003 than students from other areas (27% versus 21%).
- 44% of De Anza students in Fall 2003 from Cupertino were 30 years old and older, compared with 30% for students from other areas.
- Cupertino ranks number 2 behind San Jose in terms of the place of residence for employees working at De Anza.

Sunnyvale Statistics

7/8/04

- In Fall 2003, 1 out of 6 or 12% of De Anza College credit students was living in Sunnyvale. Put differently, more than 3,000 of the approximately 25,000 students was from Sunnyvale.
- 12% of a roughly 60 million dollar budget means that Sunnyvale students generate an estimated 7 million dollars in revenue each year for De Anza, just for the credit program.
- According to the California Postsecondary Education Commission, in Fall 2002, the number of Fremont High graduates attending De Anza was equal to the number attending a CSU and UC combined.
  - Of the June high school graduates that go on to a public college in the fall, more than 1/3 attend De Anza.
  - Of the June high school graduates that go on to a community college in the fall, almost 2/3 attend De Anza.
- Asian Indians made up about 8% of students living in Sunnyvale and attending De Anza in Fall 2003, which is twice the percentage from all other areas.
- Of the South American students attending De Anza in Fall 2003, 19% were living in Sunnyvale.
- Of the students on a H1 or H1B work visa attending De Anza in Fall 2003, 28% were living in Sunnyvale.
- About 15% of Sunnyvale residents at De Anza in Fall 2003 had received a foreign degree, which is twice the percentage from all other areas.
- A higher percentage of students from Sunnyvale took only one course at De Anza in Fall 2003 (25% versus 21%).
- 41% of De Anza students in Fall 2003 from Sunnyvale were 30 years old and older, compared with 30% for students from other areas.
- Sunnyvale ranks number 3 behind San Jose and Cupertino in terms of the place of residence for employees working at De Anza.

Participation Rates of High School Graduates at De Anza College
Fall Quarters, 1999-2003

District	School/Site	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003
Fremont	Cupertino
	Graduates	276	271	271	326	323
	Enrolled in fall quarter	111	93	84	115	121
	Percent attracted	40.2	34.3	31.0	35.3	37.5
Fremont	Fremont
	Graduates	299	342	376	345	383
	Enrolled in fall quarter	95	111	105	112	125
	Percent attracted	31.8	32.5	27.9	32.5	32.6
Homestead	Homestead
	Graduates	426	420	391	397	465
	Enrolled in fall quarter	119	95	82	103	115
	Percent attracted	27.9	22.6	21.0	25.9	24.7
Lynbrook	Lynbrook
	Graduates	391	406	461	394	414
	Enrolled in fall quarter	74	68	71	76	76
	Percent attracted	18.9	16.7	15.4	19.3	18.4
Monta Vista	Monta Vista
	Graduates	460	474	503	523	525
	Enrolled in fall quarter	132	99	89	115	140
	Percent attracted	28.7	20.9	17.7	22.0	26.7
Total	Total
	Graduates	1,852	1,913	2,002	1,985	2,110
	Enrolled in fall quarter	531	466	431	521	577
	Percent attracted	28.7	24.4	21.5	26.2	27.3

Source: High School Graduates from CPEC, Enrollment based on De Anza College files.
Includes June graduates attending De Anza in the fall term, regardless of previous enrollment.

First-Time Freshman Enrollment of Fremont Union High School District Students
By High School and Public College System, 2003

High School Name	Graduates	University of California	California State University	De Anza College	Other Community Colleges
Cupertino High	323	61	43	46	34
Fremont High	383	43	45	49	58
Homestead High	465	98	42	44	40
Lynbrook High	414	145	45	25	42
Monta Vista High	525	194	31	36	30
Fremont Union District	2110	541	206	200	204

Source: California Postsecondary Education Commission, On-Line Data Report
Enrollment of First-Time Freshman age 19 and under

Note: The definition of First-Time Freshman excludes students that attend college as a high school student.

