Teaching & Learning Seminars for Faculty Foothill-De Anza Community College District

Trouble with Teaching Math Concepts? A Workshop for STEM Faculty

Friday, March 1; 1:00 – 3:00 PM; room S-43, De Anza Campus

At this gathering, STEM Faculty will have the opportunity to share and identify common math issues that come up in classes. Participants will be work-shopping ideas, approaches, and discuss future gatherings.

Helping Your Students Read Challenging Texts

Thursday, March 14; 2:00 – 4:00 PM; Admin 103, De Anza Campus

Presenter: Kristin Skager and Veronica Acevedo Avila

Do your students struggle with reading your texts deeply? Come to this workshop to learn applicable college reading strategies and techniques to encourage your students to deliberate, reflect on and practice a range of complex ideas on the readings in your course.

Building a Welcoming Environment Before and On the First Day of Class

Thursday, March 21; 2:00 – 4:00 PM; Admin 103, De Anza Campus

Presenters: Dawn Lee Tu and Tony Santa Ana

Even before students meet you in person on the first day, pre-course emails, your syllabus, your course, Canvas, all speak volumes about you, how you might be as an instructor and how welcoming your class might be. In this workshop, explore, learn, and share equity-based strategies to build a welcoming environment that communicates to your students a balance of inclusion as well as high expectations for success.

How to Enroll

- (1) Full-time or Part-time Faculty who are employed during the 2018 – 2019 academic year may enroll in the workshops.
- (2) Faculty may not repeat workshops in which they have participated within the past year.
- (3) Full-time faculty will receive professional growth credit.
- (4) Part time faculty will receive $25.00/hour compensation for each workshop they attend. These activity hours may be applied towards column change on the salary schedule with the approval of your dean.
