What is the purpose (or mission statement) of this organization?

Young life leaders have the privilege of knowing and sharing their lives with kids and young adults with disabilities. While all Young Life activities are open to every kid, many Young Life areas have dedicated programs for kids and young adults with disabilities, typically referred to as Young Life Capernaum Ministries.

What was your role in this organization?

Volunteer leader for the teen to adult group.

Summarize your experience and how you think you benefitted from your involvement.

My experience with YL Capernaum Project has been no less than great! I wish all people could get a chance to work with and have fun with these inspirational disabled young adults. They have helped me to see how little my problems are in the long run. They have helped me know that "It's not all about me."

I love sharing their lives with them and helping them to understand the world around them. I especially love it when they learn new things about Jesus that they didn't know before.
