I have been volunteering at the Children's Discovery Museum for awhile. Actually, my friend told me about it since I wanted to do some community service.

At first, I only wanted to get some community hours, but later I found out that it was a great time for me to be with those lovely kids.

Actually, you not only teach children, but you also can learn things from them. You'll be surprised by their beautiful ideas and creativity. One of the staff, Ronnie, told me that it's not work; it's an interactive activity that makes all of us happy – it's fun!
