Summarize your experience and how you think you benefitted from your involvement.

After attending the training classes for being a poll worker, I was afraid that it was going to be difficult and not fun. When arriving to the precinct I was assigned to, the other volunteers were welcoming and very understanding. They helped me as I helped them. I worked as a clerk checking people in, finding their address, verifying that they could vote, and explaining how to use the ballot.

I had a good experience. It was fun, and I am willing to work the polls again. I learned a lot about how our voting system works and what it takes to be a poll worker.

I encourage anyone and everyone to help out.
