Have a passion for Museum studies? Want to learn more about Ancient Egypt as well as how a museum runs? The Rosicrucian Egyptian Museum is offering internships in the following areas:

Business Administration
Internet Technology / Computer Operations
Graphic Design
Publications
Museum Management

Why?
- Work with a world-renowned Museum
- Learn valuable job skills in an applied setting
- Help create unique events and publications
- Learn how a museum is run
- A successful internship comes with a Letter of Recommendation signed by the Director of Rosicrucian Park!

Who Can Be An Intern or Volunteer?
- College students with 2 or more years of education in an applicable field
- Passion for history and education
- Willingness to go above and beyond
- Some work experience helpful*

* experience does not have to be in area of specialization

When?
Internships and Volunteer positions are available year around, but do come with a minimum of a three month commitment.

How?
Fill out an Internship Application online @ www.rosicrucian.org/internships
Or visit us at the Museum and pick up an application at the admissions desk.

Need more information? Visit us at RosicrucianEgyptianMuseum.org or contact Terrance Gamble head of the Intern and Volunteer Program, at programs@rosicrucian.org.