French Language and Culture

Certificate of Achievement

The Certificate of Achievement in French Language and Culture is designed to offer students the opportunity to discover another culture and to help Francophile students broaden theirs. It is also suitable for students with French links. The certificate enables students to engage with the growing French-speaking communities in the Bay Area and to travel, study, work or get involved with businesses in 29 different countries. The certificate will satisfy a language transfer requirement and could be used in graduate work across multiple fields such as anthropology, art, history and linguistics.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to

- Communicate and express basic opinions about abstract topics
- Enable production of discourse level writing related to personal experiences
- Demonstrate an understanding of the cultures and histories of French-speaking peoples and countries
- Engage critically with socially constructed cultural and social distinctions examined through the lens of students' own cultural learnings and backgrounds

1. Meet the requirements for this certificate level.

German Language and Culture

Certificate of Achievement

The Certificate of Achievement in German Language and Culture offers opportunities for students to engage with the growing first- and second-generation German immigrant communities in the Bay Area, and to become global citizens. German is also an excellent major or minor for those who plan to pursue graduate work in areas such as philosophy, anthropology, history, linguistics or business. Understanding the diversity of cultural, historical and social contexts in the German-speaking world will provide new insights and a critical lens. This certificate will not only satisfy a language requirement but could also help students prepare for competing and cooperating in the international arena, since Germany is the largest economy in the European Union. The certificate can also promote multicultural understanding and spur personal and intellectual growth. It may open up additional opportunities for students who pursue studying abroad, since Germany is among the top non-English speaking countries in sponsoring academic exchanges through programs like Fulbright.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to

- Engage in communicative tasks that require describing personal experiences in the present with some references to the past; expressing basic opinions about abstract topics; understanding main ideas and supporting textual details; producing discourse level writing related to personal experiences
- Demonstrate an understanding of the diversity of cultural, historical, and regional contexts of German-speaking peoples and cultures
- Engage critically with constructions of cultural and social differences (as expressed through language) while examining one's own cultural positioning and assumptions

Italian Language and Culture

Certificate of Achievement

The Certificate of Achievement in Italian Language and Culture offers opportunities to appreciate the Italian language and culture, as well as dig into the interconnections between Italian culture, Latin American culture and Italian American culture. Italian is an excellent major or minor for those who plan to pursue graduate work in areas such as philosophy, anthropology, history, linguistics or business. Understanding the diversity of cultural, historical and social contexts in the Italian-speaking world will provide new insights and a critical lens. The certificate will enhance the multicultural education that De Anza aims to foster and will open additional opportunities for students who plan to study abroad.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to

- Engage in communicative tasks that require describing personal experiences in the present with some references to the past; expressing basic opinions about abstract topics; understanding main ideas and supporting textual details; producing discourse level writing related to personal experiences
- Demonstrate an understanding of the diversity of cultural, historical, and regional contexts of Italian-speaking peoples and cultures

Korean Language and Culture

Certificate of Achievement

The Certificate of Achievement in Korean Language and Culture provides opportunities to engage in the Korean and Korean American communities of the Bay Area or participate in business and trade with Korea. For students who already speak Korean with their families, the certificate will provide the opportunity to extend their linguistic repertoire and validate their knowledge, particularly as applied to their careers. In addition to satisfying a transfer language requirement, the Certificate of Achievement in Korean Language and Culture offers benefits for those engaging in future study or work in civil service or the private sector. The certificate is designed to provide intensive language experience by equipping students with practical language skills to function in an increasingly internationalized and competitive marketplace. It provides opportunities to develop Korean language skills in the areas of speaking, listening, reading and writing, as well as understanding Korean culture, history, society and politics. The Korean Language and Culture certificate serves students who would like to or need to have their language competency recognized as an add-on to their career skills. Many of our students are interested in teaching English in Korea through the EPIC, TALK programs or in Korean private companies. The certificate also enhances students' job opportunities with Korean-related companies.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to

- Demonstrate a consistent working command of essential vocabulary (recognize and reproduce at least 600-800 Korean characters) and language structures necessary to request and provide, orally and in writing, and be able to communicate with native speakers of Korean, using the appropriate language, style, sensitivity and level of respectfulness on a more complex/abstract range of information relating to high-frequency situations in a familiar context
- Demonstrate an increasingly accurate grasp of social protocols and contributions of Korean-speaking cultures, by analyzing and comparing them to one's own cultures(s)

1. Meet the requirements for this certificate level.
2. Complete the following.

Mandarin Language and Culture

Certificate of Achievement

The Certificate of Achievement in Mandarin Language and Culture is designed to open employment opportunities for local students because of the large number of Bay Area companies conducting business and trade with China, Taiwan, Singapore and other Asian countries where Mandarin is widely used. The electronics industry in particular seeks to employ people who know Mandarin. For students planning to continue their undergraduate or graduate education in business, electronics, or law, this certificate will complement their studies. From a cultural standpoint, Mandarin study is valuable in California, with its rich diversity of cultural traditions represented by many Mandarin-speaking immigrants. Many Mandarin courses can also satisfy GE requirements for an associate degree and transfer GE requirements.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to

- Demonstrate a working command of essential vocabulary, recognize and reproduce between 450-550 Chinese characters, use proper language structures when providing or requesting information orally and in writing, and use a more complex/abstract range of information relating to high-frequency situations in familiar contexts
- Demonstrate an increasingly accurate grasp of social protocols and contributions of Mandarin-speaking cultures by analyzing and comparing them to one's own culture(s)

1. Meet the requirements for this certificate level.

Russian Language and Culture

Certificate of Achievement

The Certificate of Achievement in Russian Language and Culture provides opportunities to engage with Russian-speaking communities in the Bay Area, California and nationwide. Russia is the world's largest country by land mass, sharing borders with dozens of nations – including sea borders with the United States. More than 100 ethnicities live in Russia and approximately the same number of languages are spoken on its territory. This country is one of the world's largest economies, powered by its extensive natural resources such as oil, natural gas and timber, with important industries including, manufacturing of steel, mining, fishing and agriculture. Russia is also known for its arts and culture – including ballet, theater, literature, cinema, music and visual arts – and for scientific progress in fields such as chemistry, physics, geology, mathematics, biology and space research. The Certificate of Achievement in Russian Language and Culture will satisfy a transfer language requirement and help students become global citizens. Students of Russian will be good candidates for jobs in foreign affairs with the Defense Department, State Department and many other institutions.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to

- Engage in communicative tasks that require describing personal experiences in the present with some references to the past; expressing basic opinions about issues of relevance in one's life; understanding main ideas and supporting details in aural and written discourse; producing discourse-level writing related to one's life experiences
- Demonstrate an understanding of the diversity of cultural, historical, and regional contexts of Russian-speaking peoples and cultures

World Languages and Culture

Certificate of Achievement-Advanced

The Certificate of Achievement-Advanced in World Languages and Culture offers students the opportunity to develop their multilingual abilities and to understand multicultural perspectives, so they can engage with non-English-speaking communities in the Bay Area and with travel, law, and business and nongovernmental organizations around the globe. The De Anza community is already multicultural and multilingual and this certificate will support the students of this community by providing the opportunity to formally study and further develop their language abilities. As understanding the diversity of languages and cultures provides a critical lens, the study of world languages is an excellent ancillary for those who plan to pursue undergraduate or graduate work in areas such as Anthropology, History, Law, Chicana Studies, Linguistics or Business. The Certificate of Achievement-Advanced in World Languages and Culture will satisfy the transfer language requirement, and it will offer additional benefits for those engaging in future study or work in civil service or the private sector.

Program Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to
