Public Announcements

Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public announcements.

Budgeter's Comments

Please note: Budgeter's comments are limited to 3 minutes maximum per program, not 3 minutes per individual person, to speak on their funding request.

- Lydia Hearn from the Honor Programs comments that she will be passing around a packet that has all the information of what this programs do and offers to the students. They have showed constant growing with serious students who would like to join this program. A lot of students who are in this program are being accepted into really high end UC and they feel they are helping out a lot of students.
- Diana Argabrite from the Euphrat Museum of Art comments that they first invite everyone to the event that they are having on Thursday, February 9th, 2012 to see what the museum is all about. Diana Argabrite would also like everyone to take a look at the fact sheet, which is being passed around to everyone also. They museum is something that is very important to many people and students and should not be taken for granted, this place helps students on so many levels and students play a huge role in this place. She would like everyone to know that if there is no funding to this program or place there would be really no way in keeping it going and they are more likely to go dark. Any money from DASB would help in any form or way.
- Nicky Gronzalez Yue from Campus Wellstone/DLTP comments that they are happy from all the support that has been given to them by DASB Senate. The training that is offered at this program helps forms leaders and gives really good training. They work with all types of students, from high school or college level, they help with giving students a voice and makes them feel as if they have a voice that can be heard. Some students look forward to going out on this trip, to get away from all that is bothering them, as they can connect more and get more into the training. To do this on campus and away from campus can make a huge difference to most people.
- Diana Alves de Lima from the Student Success Center comments that a sheet is being passed around, it is full of facts and everything that they help with. The Student Success Center and Torturing Center help all the students of De Anza College in some form or way. They would like to grow, but know that the DASB Senate is working on more of keeping things the way it is. The reason they are asking for more than they usually do is because their title 3 grant is ending and they need money to help replace that money that they will be losing. All the money that they get from DASB goes right to Student Tutoring and nothing else. Out of this program, students are getting a lot of skills and both the tutor and the student are learning from each other.

Approved on Wednesday, February, 15th, 2012.

- David Buyer from the Library comments that their items on check out help out the students in more ways than one. Students come in to check out books that are on list for last minute studying or even to use the book because they cannot afford to buy the books as the prices continue to go up in many ways. They have about 3,042 books on reserve and they are helping out a lot. Professors have donated books to help with their own classes. They thank the DASB senate for all the support that is given to them.
- Wilfredo Castano from the Photography Department comments that the funding in the past has helped a lot and just a little bit more money can help with buying some things they need.
- Alicia Curtez from the Puente Project comments that they have been around for 11 years and their program has been a big success and they thank everyone for all the funding they have been getting. This program helps a lot of students and makes it feel like they have a family here at the school.
- Joc Lipsis from the Computer Donation Program comments that they would like to thank everyone for all the support they have been giving. They have trained many students who they help in the program, and with all the work they do they are able to donate computers to many needing families.
- Carmen Pencida from Cal-Works Textbook comments that their program gives out book vouchers to their students. They thank everyone for their work and their continuing work. In this program the students have four years to finish their studies and during that time they have to get a job at the end of it also It helps them get started.
- La Donna Yumori-Kaku from ICC, New Student Orientation and Summer Program comments that for ICC they can not express how much clubs means to colleges and that clubs help this school in so many ways and students. On behalf of the ICC they would like to thank everyone for all the support that they have been given. For New Student Orientation, this program helps out a lot of students who are coming in for the first time and letting them know what De Anza College has to offer for them.
- Cecilia Dede from La Voz comments that it has been the student's voice and they cover all different kinds of things. They thank DASB for funding them, thought they mostly just fund for the printing which is all they ask for. They have gained success on many different levels and have helped students in many different levels.
- Thomas Ray from the Red Wheelbarrow comments that they thank DASB for the ongoing help, for their printing cost and everything they need to keep them alive and punishing the work from the students.
- Shari Pasquali from the Veterans Program comments that they would like to thank everyone for the funding for their book vouchers.
- Kulwant Singh from the Athletics comments that there are a lot of teams out there and all the students work hard to be on teams. They have a lot of away games and that is what is funded. They have 19 teams, 10 women teams and 9 men teams. They service more than 500 students, as a requirement for them they have been full time students with a good GPA.
- Gloria Heistein from Cross Cultural Program comments they are grateful for all the help that DASB has been giving them. They are happy that they will be getting close to their requested amount. They help a lot of students who are new to here and helping them work on their English to help them fit in.
- Herminio Hernandez from MPS comments that the program helps a lot of students with
