- Drew Shah interested in finance committee. Thinks important for students to be the power of change on campus. She works well with numbers and is a Business Management major. She was an officer of DECCA in highschool. Went from zero to 250 students and was ranked after. She knows responsibility and reliability—she's been dancing all her life. She wants to be involved with this DASB dynamic.
- Julia said how would you be involved if not elected.
- Drew said honors program, DECCA, marketing club.
- Jaymar asked about motivation and upcoming budget deliberations.
Drew loves working with numbers and realizes the importance of picking the best.
- Quang asked what ideas she brings?
- Drew said she would like to see the best allocations for the best clubs.

- Hein has been an intern since Fall 2013. He has done lots of events including bike program and water bottle filler. Interned for SRS committee and has been helping out a lot.
- Julia what issues do you see on campus that need improvement?
- Hein is concerned about library and tutoring hours.
Rebecca asked about not being at D&E meetings
- He said he has a class conflict.
- Hein works for adaptive physical assistance on campus. He also on the water polo team.

- Thao wants to be a part of SRS and Admin. This is her second quarter here. She at first thought she was not sure she was ready. Not one person completely represents. DASB is here to voice concerns of students. She believes leaders are servants to the people. She loves a campus cares for the students and cares for the community. She wants a CC that urges ppl to be involved in their own success and the success of others.
- Thao said when we promote events we should ask students questions and try to draw them in to be involved.
- Hakwoo liked the thought leaders are servants to the people.
- She said there is a thought that leaders are on top, when in reality they take their voices and make sure those voices are heard and those problems are addressed and we actively take hold of them.
- Julia asked about future education
- Thao said she wants to study policy or educational policy.

- Kevin moves to have a 5 min recess.
 - Seconded by Arjun.
