Request For Information (RFI)

	Question / Inquiry	Program Response
1.	Please provide a thorough description of your program (250 words max)	CCP pairs ESL and fluent English or native English speakers of English from different cultures for cross-cultural exchanges via English conversation. Participants benefit from learning directly from a fellow student from another culture. The pairing takes place each quarter. Partners agree to meet a minimum of 5 times and 5 hours during the 5-weeks. Many partners meet more than the minimum number of times. CCP is aligned with the Mission of De Anza College. Several faculty from a variety of disciplines give class credit to participants as part of their required service learning, civic engagement or outside contact assignments. Once a student joins CCP on-line, the CCP team (currently 5 student helpers under supervision of the faculty coordinator) matches the student with a compatible partner based on each partner’s application. Matching takes place during week 4 and 5 of the quarter. Upon approval, applicants will be notified of their partners by week 5 or 6. An orientation meeting is held to emphasize ways to have a more successful partnership in week 5. The team keeps in touch with partners during the time partners meet to make sure things are running smoothly. Regular office hours are held each week for face-to-face meetings with CCP participants when needed. The team also assists partners when there is a problem meeting or with the on-line meeting log. By week ten, the Final Get-together is held, whereby participants come together to share their stories and to celebrate their new international friendships.
2.	Please provide how many students are actively engaged in the program. Backing it up with data will help.	Currently 238 students are participating in CCP. In general, a total average of 550 students participate in the program each year.
3.	Why is your program important and what is the rationale behind having this program on campus? (250 words max)	Students benefit by participating in the program in numerous ways: increased confidence in communicating in English (ESL and Non-ESL students whose first language is not English). We have a number of Non-ESL students who, although they are in regular English classes, request to be considered an ESL student for matching, because they wish to be paired with a more fluent speaker of English. The main benefit for Non-ESL students (1st language English or very fluent English speakers) is the experience being a partner with a student from another culture to learn and share about each other’s lives. Often, they are surprised how much they have in common: striving to balance school, family and jobs. The more fluent speaker can serve as a mentor who can be a friend to a student who wants to be more competent using English. Both partners share customs and cultures, and by so doing, bond and support one another as they face similar challenges in the community college setting.

4.	How will your program expand students' perspectives and positively impact their lives and the community? (250 words max)	CCP gives students a different perspective on how life behaviors (habits) and opinions are affected by cultural beliefs and personal life experience. This broader perspective allows people to better understand others from different cultural backgrounds and upbringings which allows for better communications and mutual respect and understanding. It also gives students real-life experience in cross-cultural communication skills and how important they are to develop for personal or career purposes.
5.	How is your program working to improve itself every year? Do you receive student feedback? Implementing a student survey and sharing the results with DASB will be beneficial for our review process.	CCP conducts student satisfaction surveys at the beginning and ending of each quarter as well as asks for both positive and negative feedback on the program and its efficiency and effectiveness.
6.	What are all of your sources of funding? Please include funding from the college, any sources of income, any grants, and any other source. If there are no other sources, has your program taken the initiative to search for other sources? (list ALL Account Numbers, Account Names, Account Balances, and Account Purposes/Restrictions)	--$5000 to $15000/year—private donation subject to change -- app. $25,000.currently in fund—This funding is part of the General Foundation Account and is not easily accessible—This money is used to pay the Coordinator salary ($2500. Per quarter or $7500. Per year) And Funding from DASB for student salaries and supplies
7.	Go through the DASB budget goals for the current academic year and explain how your program fits each of them or as many as possible. (250 words max) The DASB budget goals are available at www.deanza.edu/dasb/budget	CCP enables ESL students to improve their language skills. CCP enables ESL and Non-ESL students to make new friends and share cultural knowledge which gives better insight on a variety of issues which in turn improves their ability to deal with class assignments with an open mind. CCP allows students to improve communication skills which are needed for class group projects. CCP instills a desire to help others and thereby improve campus community development and develop equity among all students.
8.	Explain how your program is unique. Are there any programs on campus that are similar or is there any duplication of services? (250 words max)	CCP is unique in that it is almost completely student operated and funded. There is an instructor coordinator, but the majority of the office work is done by student employees. Also there is no other program on campus that matches students up with other students so that they may help each other improve their cognitive and practical communication skills.
9.	Explain how your program advertises and promotes itself to the general student population. Provide a clear plan for the current academic year as well as any marketing material you will or have used. (250 words max)	CCP is advertised through email to instructors in a variety of disciplines who may wish to promote cross-cultural communication skills and understanding among their students. CCP Helpers then visit classes and explain the benefits of CCP as well as the requirements and method to apply to the program. Signs are also posted in the Listening Speaking Center(LSC) and Writing/Reading Center (WRC).

10.	Explain how your program promotes equity on campus. (250 words max)	Any student can apply to CCP. There are no prerequisites or required textbooks. The students are also allowed to discuss topics of their interest. Through acquiring knowledge by sharing cultural viewpoints and knowledge, students become equally aware of the need and importance of mutual understanding without bias.
