Materials: 4 by 6-inch note cards.

Note: One additional hour to be arranged working in Cross Cultural Partners and/or use of the Listening and Speaking Lab.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Organize, compose, present, and critically evaluate informative and persuasive presentations appropriate in content and style to the audience and situation.
- Display increasing confidence in speaking extemporaneously.
- Demonstrate effective listening skills in various public speaking contexts.
- Identify, locate, evaluate and use information technologies and information sources.

Course Objectives:

- 1.) Examine historical and cultural traditions of public speaking in both domestic and global contexts and their impact on our views, beliefs, and practices relating to speaking in public.
- 2.) Evaluate how making the decision to respect diversity, speak ethically, and think critically influences communication outcomes.
- 3.) Demonstrate skills in analyzing diverse audiences and creating presentations appropriate to those audiences.
- 4.) Research, analyze, organize, prepare, and evaluate informative and persuasive speeches.
- 5.) Develop confidence in delivering speeches extemporaneously.
- 6.) Develop listening skills to foster respectful, reflective, and critical listening appropriate for public presentations.

Course Requirements:

- 1.) Attendance and Participation: This class requires your attendance and participation for every class session. Because your role includes being a speaker, a listener, and an evaluator, your attendance and promptness are vital to this class. Students may be dropped from this class if they have more than two absences and if they are absent during the first week of this course. School policy dictates: “The student must officially drop classes in which s/he no longer wishes to be enrolled.” All students must attend the final class.
- 2.) Reading Assignments: Students are responsible for recommended readings and will be called upon to participate in the class discussion.
- 3.) Written Assignments: Designated speeches must be accompanied by a typed, full-sentence preparation outline that must be submitted to Turnitin on Canvas before speech delivery. Five points will be deducted for late assignments.
- 4.) Online Assignments: Online assignments will be announced weekly. There are no provisions for extra credit.
- 5.) Speeches: There will be five graded speeches and other speech activities throughout the course. Five points will be deducted for each late speaking assignment.
- 6.) Academic Dishonesty: Plagiarism or cheating may result in failing an assignment or the course.
