GRADES

Grades are based on a standardized percentage system:

A: 90-100% B: 80-89% C: 70-79% D: 60-69% F: 59% and below

Use the table provided in the “Assignments” section above to figure out your grade. Divide your points by the total possible points to determine your grade. For example, if you earn 300 and the total points in the course are 310 (300/310), your percentage score is: 96%, and your grade is an A.

Discussions

You are required to participate in weekly discussions pertaining to the the topics covered each week. Discussions include making a comment or statement (up to 5 points) that will enhance, add clarification and/or inspire further investigation on a topic. You may also contribute to the conversation by including links to research papers, documentaries and other sources of information that will provide greater learning, interest and depth to the subject matter. Discussion comments are due by Thursday 12:00am (midnight).

Resources: I recommend using the De Anza Library Films on Demand and Kanopy collections as a resource for documentaries, video lectures and more. One easy way to access this resource is to click the library icon in MyPortal found on the apps page, scroll down to the Film and Video section section. You can find many of the documentaries we will be using for discussion here in this collection.

Academic Integrity

Principals of academic integrity adopted by De Anza’s College’s Academic Senate require that students apply the following standards to all coursework, assignments, and exams. Further details on Academic Integrity can be found at: http://www.deanza.edu/gov/academicsenate/academic_integrity.html (Links to an external site.)

FOOTNOTE – CD 50.-50Z: This is an online class that does not have scheduled meetings. Students can log in anytime to do the required weekly course work. Students must have access to a computer, the internet and an individual email address. We recommend a laptop and Online Education Orientation can be found in Canvas on the Student Resources page: or desktop computer to successfully complete the course; a tablet or phone may not be adequate for all assignments and tests. Most De Anza classes will use the Canvas course management system. Information about Canvas <https://deanza.instructure.com/courses/3382>. The Student Online Resources hub with extensive information and tips can be found at deanza.edu/online-ed/students/remote learning.
