GROUP DISCUSSIONS

The “Q & A Discussions” in Canvas provides you a way to communicate with others in the class. Using this forum, you will be discussing homework assignments and may post questions that you have about our course. To participate in these discussions, you will first click on the weekly “Q & A Discussions” links in Canvas. You will read the discussion thread, and then click on the “Reply” area to type in your response (see below). When finished typing your response, you will click the “Post Reply” button (shown below) which will post your response to the other class members through email. This is a very simple tool that will allow us to communicate with each other during the quarter!

The screenshot displays the Canvas Q & A Discussion interface. At the top, a blue banner states: "Since this is a group discussion, each group has its own conversation for this topic. Here are the ones you have access to:". Below this, a discussion entry is shown with a user profile picture and the text: "Participate in Q & A Discussion (Ask Questions or share information with other students) - Optional" by Mark Sherby. A search bar and an "Unread" button are visible. A red arrow points to the "Reply" button. Below the discussion entry, there are "Previous" and "Next" navigation buttons. Another blue banner repeats the group discussion information. Below this, another discussion entry is shown, identical to the one above. A red arrow points to the "Reply" button. Below the discussion entry, there is a rich text editor with a toolbar containing various formatting options (bold, italic, underline, link, unlink, image, video, code, list, indent, outdent, link, unlink, 11pt, Paragraph). A red arrow points to the "Post Reply" button at the bottom right of the editor. The "Post Reply" button is highlighted in red.
