Course Description: Theory and techniques of public speaking in a democratic society. An introduction to a variety of perspectives and approaches used to research, organize, deliver, and evaluate public presentations. Students will develop and apply effective research strategies.

Textbook: Public Speaking Project Virtual Text

<https://web.archive.org/web/20170606121939/http://publicspeakingproject.org/psvirtualtext.html>

Materials: 4 by 6-inch note cards.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- SLO1: Organize, compose, present, and critically evaluate informative and persuasive presentations appropriate in content and style to the audience and situation.
- SLO2: Display increasing confidence in speaking extemporaneously.
- SLO3: Demonstrate effective listening skills in various public speaking contexts.
- SLO4: Identify, locate, evaluate, and use information technologies and information sources.

Course Objectives:

- Examine historical and cultural traditions of public speaking in both domestic and global contexts and their impact on our views, beliefs, and practices relating to speaking in public.
- Evaluate how making the decision to respect diversity, speak ethically, and think critically influences communication outcomes.
- Demonstrate skills in analyzing diverse audiences and creating presentations appropriate to those audiences.

- Research, analyze, organize, prepare, and evaluate informative and persuasive speeches.
- Develop confidence in delivering speeches extemporaneously.
- Develop listening skills to foster respectful, reflective, and critical listening appropriate for public presentations.

Course Requirements:

- Attendance and Participation: Because your role includes being a speaker, a listener, and an evaluator, your participation is vital to this class. School policy dictates that students are responsible for dropping classes that they no longer attend. All students must attend the final class. Students may be dropped from this class if they do not complete their speeches or assignments throughout the course, and display other signs of inactivity such as a lack of communication with the instructor.
- Reading Assignments: Students are responsible for reading the assigned textbook chapters.
- Written Assignments: Written assignments must be typed and double-spaced for submission. Uploaded assignments on Canvas must be in a PDF, .doc, or .docx file type. Prior to an assigned speech, a typed, full-sentence (complete sentence) preparation must be submitted to Turnitin on Canvas.
- Online Assignments: Online assignments will be posted on Canvas weekly.
- Speeches: There will be five graded speeches during the course. All five speeches will be conducted on Zoom with sign-ups (Sign-up Genius) posted in the Module section in advance of the designated speech days. Late submissions will have a five-point loss.
- Quizzes: There will be 10 quizzes (@ five-points each) based on the assigned readings and lectures that will allow ample time, with multiple opportunities, and based on the highest score.
- Academic Honesty: Plagiarism or cheating may result in failing an assignment. Visit Academic Integrity to review college policy: “Plagiarism is representing the work of someone else as your own. Incorporating the ideas, words, sentences, paragraphs, or parts of another person’s writings, without giving appropriate credit, and representing the product as one’s own. Representing another’s artistic or scholarly words such as musical compositions, computer programs, photographs, paintings, drawings, or sculptures as your own. Submitting a paper purchased from a research or term paper service, including the internet. Undocumented Web source usage.”
- College course policy: "Students must have access to the following: a computer, the internet, an individual email address, and a webcam-enabled device for on-camera presentations."
- Make-up Speeches: Students will be allowed to complete a make-up speech for documented absences and extenuating circumstances. Late submissions are subject to a loss of five points

ALL SPEECHES ARE SYNCHRONOUS (LIVE) AND CONDUCTED IN ZOOM

COMM 1: This asynchronous course requires a mandatory (Zoom) audience of least eight (8) to ten (10) students for each time slot. The two time slots for each speech will have approximately fifteen (15) time slots for each session. The speaking schedule is listed below for student review for the five live Zoom speeches required for this asynchronous class.

Speech sign-ups will appear in the Module section Sign-up Genius for the five speeches in this class. The Zoom sessions will have a sign-up list of 15 students for a choice of two possible dates and times. Please select one of the two offerings that fits your schedule. Students are encouraged to keep their computer screens on for their presentations and for viewing other student presentations. Genius Sign-up will be used for the sign-ups and will be posted in the Module section.

Full-preparation outlines must be submitted to Turnitin on Canvas before students deliver their speeches.

Five speeches that require student Genius Sign-up for COMM 1:

Instructor Contact:

Contact: E-mails will be responded within 24 to 48 hours during the week excluding weekends and holidays.

NOTE: This course depends on your active participation, and it will be as exciting, interesting, stimulating, and as fun, as the energy and enthusiasm that you bring to the class. The more you give, the more you will learn about your own strengths and limitations. You will also learn about and from your classmates and that you can be a part of their learning experience as well.

Wishing you all the best in the days ahead!
