Email: bhattacharjisita@fhda.edu

Lecture: Online

Office Hours:

ONLINE: Wednesday 12:30—1:30 PM; In-person: Thursday 11:30 AM—12:30 PM in A63

Welcome to Photo 4! My name is Sita Bhattacharji: please call me Sita. The best way to get in touch with me is via the email address above. I check my email at least once a day, Monday through Friday, and generally respond within 24 hours.

I have an online office hour on Wednesday 12:30—1:30 PM and an “in-person” office hour on Thursday 11:30 AM—12:30 PM in A63. If you cannot attend at these times, please contact me so that we can arrange another mutually convenient time to meet!

You will find the “Invitation” for online meetings in the “Zoom Meetings” Module on Canvas.

This course is an introduction to the technical and aesthetic properties of digital photography, with an emphasis on the use of the digital SLR camera as a tool for electronic photographic image making. Additionally, you will work at creating efficient digital workflows using Adobe Lightroom as the primary digital darkroom. You will learn the technical aspects of photography as well as how to use the camera as a tool for creating art and expressing concepts, objectives, etc. You are encouraged to employ your aesthetic, intellectual and emotional concerns as a basis for your photographic expressions.

Although no previous knowledge of photography or photo editing is required, you must be familiar with such basic computer operations as opening and saving documents, file management, and copy/paste functions, etc.

As this is an online class, you must have regular access to a computer with high-speed Internet access and be familiar with using the Internet (I cannot imagine that you are not!). Specifically, you must be familiar with Canvas as all course material and information will be found there. You will also need to be familiar with Zoom as we will be having periodic Zoom meetings, and my office hours will be via Zoom. You will find the “Invitations” for these meetings in the “Zoom Meetings” Module on Canvas.

This class requires the use of Adobe Creative Cloud software applications: specifically, Adobe Lightroom Classic. If you do not already have access to the Adobe Creative Cloud software suite, De Anza College and Adobe will provide access to you for the duration of the Quarter. You will need to set up a (free) account with Adobe.com if you do not already have one.

You will need a digital camera, preferably a DSLR (Digital Single Lens Reflex) or one that allows you some measure of control over functions such as the Aperture, Shutter, ISO and so on. (Mirrorless cameras are great, but they can be quite expensive...) Do not worry if you are not familiar with these terms: we will be going over these--and many others...!

If you have questions about your camera, please feel free to ask me: I do not pretend to know each and every camera model, so bringing an instruction manual if you have one would be helpful!

The recommended text for this class is Complete Digital Photography by Long, Ben. Ninth Edition. Readings will be shown in their corresponding Modules in Canvas.

Go to the following site, where you can purchase either the printed version or the ebook.

<https://completedigitalphotography.com/store/>

Note: the text is recommended, not required. All information for which you are responsible will be found on our Canvas site, in the readings, lectures, etc.!

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this quarter, you should be able to:

- Apply basic digital camera skills to create images.
- Demonstrate a working knowledge of the digital darkroom using Adobe Lightroom.

Course Objectives:

1. Differentiate between major camera types (analog and digital) and demonstrate knowledge of basic camera controls
2. Create and conceptualize images using digital techniques and practices
3. Organize, process, and output imagery using Adobe Lightroom as the primary digital darkroom
4. Compare and contrast traditional photographic methods with new digital methods in a rapidly changing technological world
5. Analyze a variety of photographic works to develop, refine, and understand one's thoughts about diverse and multicultural communities
6. Critique classmate's work to understand the visual and communicative value of the medium and articulate individual response and expression

GRADING

This class is primarily, though not entirely, assignment driven. Evaluation will be based upon a written exam, (the timely submission of) assignments, participation and overall effort.

Late assignments are accepted, but points may be deducted depending on the number of days late.

If you are unhappy with a grade, please speak with me about it. Based on the strength and validity of your argument, I may—or may not (!)—change your grade, but you may re-do the assignment for a higher grade.

Projects and the exam will be graded on a 1000-point scale. A minimum passing grade is a “D-” or 60%.

A = 950-1000

A- = 900-949

B+ = 860-899

B = 840-859

B- = 800-839

C+ = 760-799

C = 700-749

D+ = 660-699

D = 640-659

D- = 600-639

F = 0-599

The breakdown is as follows:

Assignment 1	=50
Assignments 2 & 3 @ 100 each:	=200
Assignments 4 & 5: @ 200 each:	=400
Final Exam:	=200
Participation:	=150
Total Possible Points:	=1000

ASSIGNMENTS

#1: Shooting: 20-30 images to import into Lightroom

#2: ISO, Bracketing and Equivalent Exposures: the number of images will vary depending on the camera and lens used

#3: Depth of Field: 6 images

#4: Color Temperature and White Balance: 12 images

#5: Using Lightroom: 10 images

The Final Exam will be available on Canvas during the last week of the Spring Quarter (June 26-30). This means that you must take the exam sometime between 12:00 AM Monday June 26 and 11:59 PM Friday June 30. You may take the exam twice: the higher grade will be recorded.

All work submitted for this course is to have been made for this class, over the course of this academic quarter and not, therefore, prior to April 10, 2023.

A : Indicates Excellent Work.

Student work demonstrates excellent skill, judgment, and application of principles and techniques. Conceptual foundation is exceptionally clear and engaging. Exceptionally strong relationship to the project topic.

B : Indicates Very Good Work.

Student work demonstrates good skill, judgment, and application of principles and techniques. Conceptual foundation is strong and engaging. Strong relationship to the project topic.

C : Indicates Average Work.

Student work demonstrates average skill, judgment, and application of principles and techniques. Conceptual foundation is average and fairly engaging. Average relationship to the project topic.

D or F : Indicates below Average or Failing Work.

Student work demonstrates below average skill, judgment, and application of principles and techniques. Conceptual foundation is unclear. Project does not relate clearly to the project topic.

PARTICIPATION

Participation, which includes asking questions, making comments, and discussing your work and the work of your classmates, is an important facet of education and learning.

As we will not have much “in-person” time to look at your work, “Peer Reviews” will be assigned for each assignment, and are in place of the in-class discussions that we would be having for these assignments. You will be (randomly) assigned two classmates per assignment whose work you must comment upon.

So, what does this entail? You are to make comments and/or observations about the images you have just seen. Do you like them? Do you not like them? Why?! What works for you? What does not? Why?! Please don't just say “Wow, I really like your images...” Explain and elaborate on that--briefly, of course...!

In addition, ask any questions that you might have about how the images were made, what the artists' intentions were, and so on.

A relatively short paragraph will suffice!

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

The college will enforce all policies and procedures set forth in the Standards of Student Conduct (see catalog).

Any student disrupting the class may be asked to leave that class. Administrative follow-up may result.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

As a student at De Anza College, you join a community of scholars who are committed to excellence in the process of teaching and learning. Academic honesty—and honesty in general—is fundamental to this community. We assume that all students will pursue their studies with integrity and honesty; that the work they submit is their own original work—work that accurately represents the time and effort applied.

Cheating, plagiarism (of written or visual information) or knowingly furnishing false information in the classroom or to the instructor is Academic Dishonesty and is a violation of the Honor Code. Students are expected to be familiar with the Honor Code and to recognize that violations of this Code are most serious and will be handled in a manner that fully represents the extent of the Code and that befits the seriousness of its violation.

If you have any questions or concerns about this, please ask.

PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

Students who are currently enrolled at De Anza College qualify for psychological services.

- Students are limited to ten free sessions per academic year, regardless of reason for seeking services.
- Referral information to outside community resources is available for students who require additional services.

Problems We Can Help With

It is better to seek help through Psychological Services before a problem becomes too serious. When something is relatively minor, it can often be resolved a lot faster. Here are some examples of the types of problems that you can come to us for help.

- Family Issues
- Romantic relationship difficulties
- Anxiety
- Stress
- Depression
- Sexual issues
- Identity issues
- Sexual identity issues
- Adjustment difficulties

- Difficulty making decisions or choices
- Bereavement
- Bullying and harassment
- Body image crisis
- Substance misuse issues
- Ennui (a feeling of listlessness and dissatisfaction arising from a lack of occupation or excitement)
- Anger issues

How Our Sessions Work

Counseling is a process of discovery and understanding. It seeks to help you be more aware of what concerns or troubles you. As a result, it can help with making those decisions, choices, or changes that are right for you.

The counselor's role is to be understanding, respectful and nonjudgmental in his/her interactions with you. What is shared in session will be kept confidential within parameters as set out by the California code of legal and ethical standards for mental health care.

You can contact us by phone or email:

- 408.864.8868
- dapsychservice@deanza.edu

We are not a 24-hour program. For life-threatening emergencies, call 9-1-1

You are welcome to stop by in person to learn about our services or schedule an appointment for a private session with a Psychological Services counselor

- Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays: 9 a.m.- 2:45 p.m.
- Fridays by appointment only, via Zoom.
- RSS 258 – upstairs from the Bookstore in the Registration & Student Services Building

DISABLED STUDENT SERVICES

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, De Anza College is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities to students with documented disabilities (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical issues).

You can meet with a Disabilities Support Services (DSS) counselor or Learning Disability (LD) Specialist to discuss any accommodations or specific learning needs you may have. If you have a disability-related need for reasonable accommodations or services in this course, you will need to provide the instructor with a Test Accommodation Verification (TAV) form from the DSS office.

Students are expected to give 5 (five) days-notice of the need for accommodations. Students with disabilities may obtain this form by contacting their DSS counselor or LD Specialist at (408) 864-8753.

DSS Location: RSS Building, Suite 141
