Course Information

Principles of Acting 20B is designed to continue the study of the acting process through the performance of selected monologs and scenes from contemporary dramatic scripts. Students will be exposed to the works of contemporary playwrights and experience the disciplinary requirements of the performing artist. Various acting techniques will be studied and the range of the human instrument expanded to improve the means for character development and the moment-to-moment life of the character/actor.

Policies

LATE WORK - Assignments are expected to be turned in on time. Please pay particular attention to the due dates listed on the class due date schedule. Late assignments will be docked by 5% for each week they are late.

DROPPING - It is the student's responsibility to add or drop the class. The instructor will not drop you. There is one exception, however. If you are registered in the class, it is important that you show up the first night or you will be dropped as a "no show."

PARTICIPATION - Please wear clothing that does not restrict movement. Expect to be physically active.

DISABILITIES - In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, De Anza College is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities to students with documented disabilities (e.g. mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical issues).

You can meet with a Disabilities Support Services (DSS) counselor or Learning Disability (LD) Specialist to discuss any accommodations or specific learning needs you may have. If you have a disability-related need for reasonable accommodations or services in this course, you will need to provide the instructor with a Test Accommodation Verification (TAV) form from the DSS office.

Students are expected to give 5 (five) days-notice of the need for accommodations. Students with disabilities may obtain this form by contacting their DSS counselor or LD Specialist at (408) 864-8753. <https://www.deanza.edu/dsps/dss/dish.html>

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY - I do not expect you to cheat in this class but, for all of your classes, you should be aware of the college Academic Integrity Policy and its consequences for students. https://www.deanza.edu/policies/academic_integrity.html

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR -The college will enforce all policies and procedures set forth in the Standards of Student Conduct (see catalog). Any student disrupting the class may be asked to leave that class. Administrative follow-up may result. https://foothill.edu/campuslife/documents/Student_Code_of_Conduct.pdf
