Office: Room A-51 Office Hours: Saturdays 8:30am-9:30am

Prerequisite: Arts 18A

Course Description: This is an introductory ceramics class that will cover materials, methods and strategies for the successful creation of ceramic vessels and sculpture. A survey of ceramic construction techniques including basic design principles and creative development. Through demonstration, discussions and lectures you will be provided with a general introduction to a wide range of ceramic techniques and concepts, including studio practice in various hand building techniques, introductory wheel throwing, surface decoration including colored slip, mid fire oxidation glazing techniques and raku firing processes. Students will build a working knowledge of ceramic processes as a means to communication and self-expression within the ceramic medium and creative process. Studio assignments will vary in length and involvement and will be followed by group critique. Engaged participation in critiques is mandatory and essential for your progress. Students are expected to challenge themselves within the parameters of each assignment, as well as to adopt a collaborative, engaged, and helpful attitude in the classroom. There will be one quiz to test your knowledge of basic concepts and ceramics terminology. Basic studio maintenance and cooperative kiln loading/unloading is considered part of the class. At the end of the quarter, there will be one mandatory, in-person studio cleanup, final critique and potluck.

Student Learning Outcome (SLO)

Classroom Etiquette

Respect yourself, other class members, visitors, and the space we share.

Please arrive on time and stay for the scheduled class period. If you must arrive late or leave early, please do so with as little disruption of the class as possible.

Come to class prepared, with any needed supplies and books, and with homework completed. I will do my best to notify you in advance of supplies you will need.

During class work time, please keep personal conversation to a minimum, and use a quiet voice. You may listen to music devices with earphones, but be prepared to remove them to communicate with the instructor or to resume class discussions.

Clean up after yourself. This includes the worktables, floor, and shared counters and sink. Each class may also have an assigned weekly cleanup task for the classroom.

Please turn cell phones off during class. If you must stay in contact with work or family, turn off the cell phone ringer. Use your phone outside the classroom during break or after class.

When anyone is addressing the class as a whole, please listen attentively. All in the room appreciate others not having personal conversations during lectures and discussions.

During critiques, please keep all comments respectful. Honest and constructive criticism, without voicing negative judgments, can be the very useful to the artist.

It is not appropriate to bring children or pets to class.

Please consider that there are people with sensitivities to strong odors, such as fragrant colognes or oils. All would appreciate minimizing your use of strongly odorous substances.

No flip-flops, sandals, or open shoes, only close-toed shoes. There is loose glass in the studio.

No food or sugar drinks in the classroom.

If you're in class with your partner, please keep a personal space. This is a time for you to individually explore your creativity.
